

APRIL/MAY 2019

BNBC44 — FIRST – AID (NME II)

Time : Three hours

Maximum : 75 marks

SECTION A — (10 × 2 = 20 marks)

Answer ALL questions.

1. Define the term first-aid.
2. Write about two situations in which you use tincture in the first-aid box.
3. What is the consequence of electric shock?
4. Differentiate between a cut and an abrasion.
5. Give the symptoms of seizures.
6. Can you give water to a person when he is having an epileptic incident? Why?
7. Mention any two emergencies associated with diabetes complication.
8. What is the immediate response to be given on a person fainting?

9. What toxin is there in snake?
10. Give examples for disinfectant poisoning.

SECTION B — ( $5 \times 5 = 25$  marks)

Answer ALL questions.

11. (a) First-aid saves the life — Justify.
Or
(b) Brief a note on first-aid for sprains and strains.

12. (a) How will you give first-aid for a patient with burns?

Or

- (b) List the measures to be taken for amputations.

13. (a) If somebody complains for chest pain, what will you do?

Or

- (b) Outline the immediate remedial measures to be given for seizure.

14. (a) Comment on the causes, symptoms and first-aid to be given for choking.

Or

- (b) Briefly discuss about the first-aid to be given for heart attack.

15. (a) Write shortly on the first-aid to be given for animal bite.

Or

- (b) If a person is bitten by a poisonous snake, what will you do?

SECTION C — ( $3 \times 10 = 30$  marks)

Answer any THREE questions.

16. Outline the important rules of first-aid.
17. Elaborate on the first-aid measures to be given for bleeding and fractures.
18. Write in detail on first-aid during diabetic emergencies.
19. How will you give first-aid for a person with breathing difficulties?
20. Write short notes on first-aid for
(a) Alkali poisoning
(b) Poisoning by disinfectant

